A Little Boy Fell Asleep
In his mother's arms
And he dreamed about places
He would go to faraway lands Where dinosaurs roam and unicorns live
And fairies dance across the sky
And mermaids splash on the waves

Green meadows I dream Where the buffaloes roam free and the eagles soar through the sky Where whales and dolphins are not endangered and the nets are banned from the seas Where rain forests don't turn into cities and the birds of paradise fly free Where all the nations of the world can live in peace and harmony Where all the children of the world
can live in peace and harmony

Oh everyone Please hear our Dream, Let our Dream live on
